Thoughts From The Publisher

Welcome! Welcome! Welcome to the Myrtle Beach Fall Rally and the Grand Strand a/k/a The Red Neck Riviera!

I want to thank Suck Bang Blow for the front cover and Hoof-n-Finz for the back cover. You need to go and hang out under the live oak tree. It’s really cool. With live entertainment outside.

Moving on to Broken Spoke – lots of parking, live bands, relaxed atmosphere with the old school flair.

I want to say hi to Nicki at the Anvil Tavern – some of the hottest girls on the Strand. Great food, too. My favorite chicken fingers – not that frozen stuff. And a great wraparound deck.

Coastal Trikes up in Socastee – if your in that area say hey to Jim Bang & he’ll work a good deal for you.

Iron Gate is where you will find Wham Bam. Airbrush 66 is Nathan’s West. He’ll be at Four Corners painting on female bodies, & whatever else you can think of. The rest of the time he’s at Coastal Grand Mall.

If the bug bites you for a tattoo – go see Pit Bull. They are a clean, sterile environment and have several artists that can create an awesome piece of body art for you.

I want to welcome Victory Motorcycles as one of our new advertisers. Stop down and see Coastal Victory and check out the innovations on this American-made bike. Right next door is T-Bones with All You Can Eat Ribs Wednesday and Saturday nights. Ray puts out one hell of a spread.

Girls! Girls! Girls! See Thee Doll House for some of the hottest female entertainers this side of the Strand.

I want to thank Thunder for my maps; Linda for her typing fingers (magic fingers, ha-ha); Jerry – as always you complete me (ha-ha); and to the printer God – Frank and Jane, who always get me out on time. This is a thank you to Monique Allman – she’s the cover girl. Rufus Purdue, is the owner of the bike. And thanks to Rich Taylor from Coastal Explorers Journal for the great photography.

If you are interested in advertising with The Bikers Pocket Guide®, we are a national publication. We do Daytona – Bike Week and Biketoberfest; Myrtle Beach Spring and Fall Rallies, and Sturgis. Please visit our website where all the information you need is at your fingertips. Our web address is www.bikerspocketguide.com, or you can call me at (386) 323-9955. Also, the Guide can be downloaded for the current event approximately a week before it begins. That way you can do some planning in advance.

Please let the advertisers know that you saw them in The Bikers Pocket Guide®, and if they aren’t – tell them they should be. We’ve been around for 13 years. We didn’t just ride, I said ride, into town last week.

Have a safe Bike Week. Think before you drink. Don’t leave your drink unattended. It’s not the bartenders’ job to watch it. And please take care of your servers and bartenders who are working hard to make your Bike Week a memorable one. And be safe.

Lots of love to Ronnie and Robin.
